Dear Friends

The short month of February always seems to me to be something of an 'in-between' time. It starts off still dark and cold but by the end of the month the days will be noticeably lengthening and whatever winter weather is still with us, we know won't last too much longer. Plants that have been coming to life underground will be starting to put out shoots. Our thoughts turn towards spring and, in some cases, with Valentine's Day on Feb 14th, towards love and romance.

As a vicar, it is always a particular joy to officiate at a wedding service, having got to know the couple over several months – sometimes years – and to join in that celebration of their love and public commitment to one another. Over the months, we will have tailored the service to reflect their unique relationship to make their wedding day a very special occasion.

There is a tendency to think of church weddings as lavish occasions but the most important – and only essential – part is the commitment of two people to love and support one another for the rest of their lives. Everything else is 'icing on the cake'! Since 1997, a number of national organisations have promoted the week that includes Feb 14th as 'Marriage Week UK' (formerly National Marriage Week). According to their website (www.marriage-week.org.uk), Marriage Week UK celebrates the diversity and vibrancy of marriage as the basis for family life in the UK.

Current research suggests that the enduring stability of marriage results from the commitment that two people make to each other, embodied in their vows, and supported by family, friends, and society at large. Permanent, loving relationships contribute significantly to the stability of society, communities and families.

It is a great act of trust to take on the commitment of marriage, but I believe that it is part of our make-up as human beings to want to make such a commitment. It is also part of our relationship with God that he gives his grace to help to sustain us in all our commitments. There is a particular invitation to engaged and married couples, widows and widowers to come to give thanks for marriage at our service at All Saints, Sutton on 19th February at 11am when we will be recognising the value of the love we give and receive, and the healing power of God's love. All are welcome. Wishing you every blessing

Our series of Lent lunches begins at Sutton Church on Ash Wednesday 1st March at 12noon with Holy Communion followed by a light lunch of homemade soup and bread with donations going this year to Suffolk Refugee Support. All are welcome.

The series continues with a short service of midday prayer at 12 noon each Saturday. Venues will be announced in March Village Voices. Suffolk Refugee Support rely entirely on donations and grant funding for all their work helping refugees rebuild their lives in Suffolk. Starting this month (February) the churches' team of pastoral visitors are offering to visit anyone who would like someone to talk to now and again. There is no 'hidden agenda' – we are not going to 'push' religion at you, try to persuade you to come to church or give money. We just offer a friendly smile and a listening ear. All our visitors have received appropriate training and DBS clearance. If you or someone you care for would like a visit, please contact Rev'd Ruth 412052 ruth.hatchett@yahoo.co.uk in the first instance. Church Dates

If anyone is able to help us with the monthly flower rota please get in touch with Pat 411470.
