

Shottisham Village Newsletter

We are always told not to talk about politics or religion – too contentious! Well politics seems to be okay at the moment so what about religion? Lots of us would like to talk about that but there doesn't seem to be much opportunity. Have you got lots of questions, lots of things that make you cross about God and the church, lots of things you haven't got the courage to ask? There is a very good time and place for having your say. Once a month at Cafe Sundae, sitting around informally, we get the chance to say it how it is.

Over cups of good coffee and toast or croissants we chat, debate, argue and laugh about the religious questions that are generally skirted around in social circles. We find our discussions really interesting and thought-provoking and always relevant to the way we live our lives.

A warm welcome awaits you if you would like to join us on the third Sunday of the month at All Saints' Church, Hollesley, from 9.30am to 11.

Jenny Maddock

Revd Ruth writes : At our September Café Sundae on 15th September our topic is 'God and Climate Change'. In particular, we'll be considering the current environmental crisis and what we can do about it. You may have noticed the EvnU stand at Hollesley fete where young (and not so young!) people were painting the wonderful banner which now hangs in Hollesley church, encouraging us all to focus on the issues of climate change and our impact on the natural world. Do come and join our discussion on 15th.
